

Tavira, a city with remainings of all historical times

A city with testimonies of passage of different civilizations, like phoenicians, romans and muslims.

Being one of the Portugal cities with major number of temples by square área, adding up to 21 churches, representing the most diverse artistic and architectonic styles, starting with roman, encompassing the gothic, renaissance, barroc and neoclassic.

The magnificent tile panels of Misericórdia church, one of oldest of its kind in Portugal.

The castle mother church, old mosque, is connected to the legend of the City Conquest by the knights of Saint James, in which perished 6 knights, being remembered as martyrs.

The connection with the river, the city evolution according with the noblehouses, times and personalities tied with the city.
